Government

Government agencies deploy ZeroTier as a secure, scalable solution for connecting and managing fragmented government and contractor network resources at any level. ZeroTier's defense-grade cryptography allows for secure interagency collaboration and emergency response operations.

- Seamless interagency collaboration across offices and remote teams.
- Low-latency connections for real-time data and mission-critical operations.
- Rapid deployment without hardware for temporary sites or emergency response.
- Strictest levels of standards compliance including SOC 2 and FIPS-140.
- Simple installation to reduce IT complexity and overhead.
